MISSION TRIP POLICY

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

1. Those who have confessed the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior. You do not have to be a member of Concord Church.
2. Those who have a compassionate heart towards the least of these.
3. Individuals willing to be inconvenienced and taken out of their comfort zone for the cause of Christ
4. Individuals who have a servant heart and a willingness to serve their fellow mission team members.
5. The health and safety of the trip participants is a top priority. We stay informed of the latest travel advisories from several countries. Trip participants, however, has the responsibility of understanding the associated risks and making the final decision to participate with a team.
6. Trip participants must be 18 years of age or older to travel unaccompanied. Depending on the type of trip, location and mission trip partner policies, minors over the age of 8 years old may participate on a mission trip but he/she must have a parent or legal guardian as a chaperone. There are some mission trip partners / agencies that may have age restrictions. All trip participants must sign a release of liability form.

MISSION TRIP TRAINING

Each team member must attend 70% of the mission trip interest meeting and scheduled training sessions. The training sessions are designed for trip participants to build team cohesiveness, prepare for the mission field, learn about the culture and receive spiritual formation guidance. If a participant misses a session, he/she must receive approval from the mission trip leader.

MISSION TRIP EXPENSES

- Standard estimated costs on most trips include the following:
 - Airfare
 - Accommodations (Hotel, meals, transportation)
 - Travel insurance (www.volunteercard.com) if not offered by ministry partner
 - Accident medical, sickness, emergency evacuation, repatriation of remains, trip delay, baggage & personal effects loss, baggage delay, passport replacement
 - Administrative (translators, tips, etc.)
 - Note: The standard estimated costs would vary based on the country, ministry partner and outreach projects.

- Out of pocket expenses & responsibilities of each participant includes the following:
 - Passport (You must have a valid passport with expiration not less than 6 months after your return to the US. It takes about eight to twelve weeks to secure a passport, so don't delay.)
 - Entry/exit visas
 - Vaccinations
 - Extra baggage (If there is a need for extra luggage for supplies, Concord Church will incur the cost)
 - Souvenirs
 - Meals at airport
 - Travel to/from DFW and parking
 - Trip cancellation policy:
 - Trip Cancellation is an additional option available to those who have purchased a Volunteer Card. Trip Cancellation covers your trip being canceled for natural disasters, organizational failure, debilitating sickness or tragedy preventing you from going on the trip. Typically, the trip cancellation costs is based on the trip participant's age and cost of the trip. Important: You must purchase Trip Cancellation by your final trip payment. Go to www.volunteercard.com for more information.

SUBMITTING PAYMENTS

- If Concord Church is sponsoring the mission trip and collecting payments, all funds from trip participants and donors must be paid directly to Concord Church.
 - Online payments: Visit to www.ConcordChurch.org and go to the Missions webpage to make payment by Credit Card / Check
 - Checks and Money Orders:
 - Mail to: Concord Church, c/o Missions Ministry, 6808 Pastor Bailey Drive, Dallas, Texas 75237
 - Write in memo field: “Preferred” name of participant. For example: Preferred Mark Porter
 - Do not place payments in the Concord Church offering baskets / boxes
- If Concord Church is not sponsoring the mission trip or collecting payments, all funds must be sent to the sponsoring mission partner.
- An acknowledgement of payments will be mailed for each donation.
- We discourage donors from giving checks made payable directly to the trip participant.

REFUNDING OF GIFTS RELATED TO TRIPS

Contributions for a particular trip participant will not be refunded to donors except in unusual circumstances, such as the cancellation of a trip. Funds preferred for the trip of a particular participant could be carried forward for a future trip at the discretion of the church.

Concord Church is aware that circumstances may arise that will cause cancellations of a Missions Trip.

- If you cancel your trip, the non-refundable deposit and the amount you paid towards your trip will not be refunded by Concord Church.
- All payments, excluding the $250 deposit, may be transferred for use on a future mission trip sponsored by Concord Church within one year of the original date.
- If Concord Church must cancel the mission trip, you may receive a full refund of your trip payments, excluding the $250 deposit.

We encourage participants to consider purchasing trip cancellation.

Donations referenced for your mission trip will not be refunded to donors or trip participants. All donations given to support trips are the property of the church and will be expended under the discretion and control of the church.

This policy is non-negotiable and will be adhered to in all matters as it relates to any short-term or long-term mission trips.

DISCRETION AND CONTROL OVER GIFTS

All gifts given to support trips are the property of the church and will be expended under the discretion and control of the church.
