DESIGNS
BY CAKE
DADDY

Career: Professional Cake Artist & Baker

Manuel and Kellee Pruitt are faithful members of Concord. Manuel Pruitt, better known as "Cake Daddy" began designing cakes in 1992 when his mother literally made him attend a cake decorating class at J C Penny that he did not want to attend. From there, it was just a hobby until 2013 when he lost his job as a manager at a trucking company. Subsequently, he and his beautiful wife Kellee decided to step out on faith and start their full time cake business. Since then, God has opened many doors for them, such as appearing on the nationally televised "Cake Wars" on the Food Network, many appearances on WFAA's News 8 Daybreak and by even being featured on "Good Morning Texas" recently. Along with those many accolades, he has also been featured in "Be Great" magazine and graced the cover of the January 2016 edition of "Southern Dallas Business & Living" magazine! Cake Daddy has created cakes for names such as world renowned preacher Bishop T D Jakes, Von Miller of the Denver Broncos and Dancing with the Stars, Dez Bryant of the Dallas Cowboys and Michael Finley of the San Antonio Spurs, just to name a few. He credits God first, his mom, and his wife for his success.

August 2 - Game Day: Onsite

Is there an early drop-off option?

Yes, camp officially begins at 7:30am if you choose the early drop-off option there would be an additional early drop-off fee of $10 per week and $5 per additional child to pay for this extra service.

What is the registration fee?

The non-refundable fee is $75 and it will go toward the cost of t-shirts and excursions.

Are there scholarships?

Yes. We have a limited amount of scholarships this year. An applicant can be awarded partial or full scholarship. The scholarship committee will give preference to those who meet these expectations:

- Regular Concord Church attendees
- Financial need
- Returning attendees of camp without excessive disciplinary referrals.
- High report card grades

Apply from March 1st to March 31st .

Are there any sibling discounts?

A reduced rate of $300 per session for an additional sibling - a $50 savings

What happens if I have a vacation?

Your payment holds your spot for the camp.

What are the payment deadlines?
